Summer Service Opportunity to 'Feed Our Kids'

By Cassidy Johnson

Soon, kids will be out for summer break and ready to enjoy some time away from schoolwork. While that may mean family vacations or afternoons by the pool for many, some may simply be planning out how to get food over the next few months. With free or reduced-cost school lunches paused for the season, many kids in the area will need support to get at least one proper, nutritious meal a day. Even though we may not think this is a prevalent problem in our community, the North Texas Food Bank reports that "1 in every 5 kids in North Texas is food insecure."

It's because of this that White's Chapel is once again partnering with GRACE, a nonprofit organization that helps those struggling with a limited income or recent emergency, to offer summer lunches. Through the Feed Our Kids summer program, volunteers will provide food and distribute it to families in the Grapevine area. White's Chapel volunteers will sponsor the weeks of June 5-9, June 12-16, and July 24-28. During the week of VBS/VBX (June 12-15), WC fifth and sixth graders will make lunches for the kids as part of their mission activity.

"Feed Our Kids is a great volunteer opportunity for any age," said lead volunteer Carrie Schoof. "We currently need Lunch Captains for the week of July 24 - 28. We need 3 - 4 people to serve lunches and then another 5 - 10 for the Entertainment Crew. The more, the merrier!"

Groups such as neighbors, friends, or Sunday School class members are welcome to sign up. One person will act as the Lunch Captain and communicate

When God Created Mothers

By Erma Bombeck

Editor's Note: I miss Erma Bombeck. A lot of people of my generation miss her, too. She was the queen of humorous essays --all usually including a poignant message. On this Mother's Day Weekend, I thought we might enjoy revisiting her words of wisdom and wit.

When the Good Lord was creating mothers, He was into his sixth day of "overtime" when an angel appeared and said, "You're doing a lot of fiddling around on this one."

Already I have one who heals herself when she is sick... can feed a family of six on one pound of hamburger...

And the Lord said, "Have you read the specs on this order?"

- She has to be completely washable, but not plastic;
- Have 180 movable parts... all replaceable;
- Run on black coffee and leftovers;
- Have a lap that disappears when she stands up;

- A kiss that can cure anything from a broken leg to a disappointed love affair;
- And six pairs of hands."

The angel shook her head slowly and said, "Six pairs of hands... no way." "It's not the hands that are causing me problems," said the Lord. "It's the three pairs of eyes that mothers have to have." "That's on the standard model?" asked the angel.

Ten of the Greatest Things Ever Said about Motherhood...

In honor of our mothers – and all those who've been like our mothers – we'd like to reflect upon some of the best things ever said about those who gave us life... and those who taught us how to live it well.

1. "There's no way to be a perfect mother and a million ways to be a good one." – Jill Churchill
2. "A mother is not a person to lean on, but a person to make leaning unnecessary." – Dorothy Canfield Fisher
3. "It's a funny thing about mothers. Even when their own child is the most disgusting little blister you could ever imagine, they still think that he or she is wonderful." – Roald Dahl
4. "Most mothers are instinctive philosophers." – Harriet Beecher Stowe
5. "My mother had a great deal of trouble with me, but I think she enjoyed it." – Mark Twain
6. "If at first you don't succeed, try doing it the way Mom told you to in the beginning." – Unknown
7. "You're always going to wonder if you're doing things wrong, but that's what it means to be a mom, to care so much about someone else that you just want to be as perfect as possible." – Naya Rivera
8. "My mother said to me, 'If you are a soldier, you will become a general. If you are a monk, you will become the Pope.' Instead, I was a painter, and became Picasso." – Pablo Picasso
9. "I am sure that if the mothers of various nations could meet, there would be no more wars." – E. M. Forster
10. "Mothers all want their sons to grow up to be president, but they don't want them to become politicians in the process." – John F. Kennedy

Thanking God for all our moms,
John & Todd

WC Music Ministry

A Note from WC Music & Worship

"There was a man sent from God whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through him all might believe. He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light."
John 1:6-8

The WC Music Ministry is proud to celebrate Dr. John McKellar at the 11 a.m. service on Sunday, June 11, with music created especially for him. Dan Forrest, premier composer of sacred music has created an arrangement of "No Night There" for our beloved 'Pastor John.' The inscription in the octavo reads, "In honor of Dr. John McKellar for his thirty years of faithful service at White's Chapel Methodist Church, Southlake, Texas." In addition to the world premiere of "No Night There," we have commissioned and received from our own Bruce Wermuth a fresh arrangement of John's beloved hymn from the old Cokesbury hymnal, "Love, Mercy and Grace." June 11 promises to be a very special Sunday!

John has faithfully served our White's Chapel congregation since 1992. What was happening in 1992? George H.W. Bush was president, that is until Bill Clinton beat him in November. Jay Leno became the permanent host of the "Tonight Show" and Whitney Houston had the smash hit "I Will Always Love You." 1992 was a long time ago – 31 years, to be precise. In 1992, our congregation numbered 492 members with 154 worshipping each Sunday. Today, in 2023, our congregation has soared to include more than 18,000 members, with our average worship attendance running just under 7,000. John loves to regale us with stories from 'the old days,' when the staff consisted of one employee, John! Soon, he began to add staff who all worked out of a little house across the street. Unfortunately, work was disrupted at one point when a family of skunks set up housekeeping under the house! Bible Studies met in a trailer and folks squeezed into an extension on the chapel for Wednesday Night Dinners. One night, in particular, we had a fried chicken dinner. John gathered up all the bags of trash and hauled them to the dumpster. Swinging the heavy sacks up and over the dumpster's rim, the bags split, and chicken bones went flying everywhere. When he tells the story, he often chuckles about the mishap.

John continued a fish fry tradition at the church that was originally started by avid fishman Rev. Dale Ryder. But one year, there weren't many fish and not enough side dishes. John is not a fisherman, so unless someone else fished and donated the fish, the tradition became one that included purchased fish. With a chuckle and a twinkle in his eye John said, "It's a potluck, and you just never know what you're gonna get!"

Over the years, we have struggled with Christmas trees. In the early days, a tree fell over – lights and all – and John laughed and laughed! He then declared "We need to get more help for our seasonal decorating committee!" Another time, we ordered a huge, 40-foot tree and the top fell off, so he snapped a photo of the decorated 'top' as well as the remaining 'bottom' and wove it into a sermon.

John always has a way of making the best of a bad situation. He makes it bearable with laughter and perspective! He used to give children's messages in the early 90s and one Sunday, he was teaching a tithing sermon. He held up a $20 bill to illustrate the value of connecting your heart with your tithe. John claimed, "This $20 bill has no value unless you give from the heart." One youngster piped up, "If that doesn't have any value, can I have it?"

These are exciting times to be a part of White's Chapel!

with the team of volunteers. The group will then financially provide for the lunch materials and any additional activities they wish to do with the children. Group members have the freedom to choose what food they want to purchase and activities they wish to bring, so cost may vary.

Each lunch contains an entree, chips/crackers, fruit, drink, and a dessert. Entrees can be homemade (like sandwiches, hot dogs, or chicken nuggets) or they can be catered (like pizza, cheeseburgers, or Chick-Fil-A). Lunch Captains decide the menu.

"Many of the kids stay in their apartments all day while their parents work," Schoof said. "I love being able to provide a fun lunch break for them to get out of the apartment, have some lunch, and play with our team of volunteers. Our Lunch Captains are very generous, so we often have leftovers to send home with the kids for the rest of their family."

Volunteers are able to bring activities for the kids to play with, too. Simple activities such as using sidewalk chalk, playing board games, competing in Four Square, or playing basketball bring an element of summer fun to the afternoon.

"God provides the most incredible volunteers," Schoof said. "We have Lunch Captains who provide and serve the lunches and another group of volunteers who just come to play and interact with the kids during the lunch hour. We call these volunteers our Entertainment Crew. These volunteers bring games, activities, and crafts from their homes, so the kids have a wide assortment of things to do. We turn the front lawn of the GRACE pantry into a carnival!"

White's Chapel has worked with GRACE for many years because of their vast reach in helping those in need.

"Beth Chernick is our Feed Our Kids point person and she is incredible!" Schoof said. "She is very organized, provides training, and stops by the lunch sites every day to make sure we are doing okay. GRACE is so grateful for all their volunteers!"

People will serve at the GRACE Ticknor Terrace location for the June dates and the GRACE Shady Oaks Outreach Center location for the July dates. Group members will show up at 11:15 a.m. to set up then serve food from noon to about 12:45 p.m. with whatever lunch items they have prepared. Typically, around 100 kids show up each day for the provided meal. White's Chapel volunteers will feed anywhere from 800 to 1,500 hungry children.

Those wanting to be a Lunch Captain or a member of the Entertainment Crew are encouraged to contact Carrie Schoof to sign up. Groups can serve one or multiple days.

Consider doing more with your summer break. Together, we can help 'Feed Our Kids!'

The Lord nodded. "One pair that sees through closed doors when she asks, 'What are you kids doing in there?' when she already knows. Another here in the back of her head that sees what she shouldn't but what she has to know, and of course the ones here in front that can look at a child when he goofs up and say, 'I understand and I love you' without so much as uttering a word."

"Lord," said the angel, touching His sleeve gently, "Go to bed. Tomorrow..."

"I can't," said the Lord, "I'm so close to creating something so close to myself. Already I have one who heals herself when she is sick... can feed a family of six on one pound of hamburger... and can get a nine-year-old to stand under a shower."

The angel circled the model of a mother very slowly. "It's too soft," she sighed.

"But she's tough!" said the Lord excitedly. "You cannot imagine what this mother can do or endure."

"Can it think?"

"Not only can it think, but it can reason and compromise," said the Creator.

Finally, the angel bent over and ran her finger across the cheek. "There's a leak," she pronounced. "I told You You were trying to push too much into this model."

"It's not a leak," said the Lord. "It's a tear."

"What's it for?"

"It's for joy, sadness, disappointment, pain, loneliness, and pride."

"You are a genius," said the angel.

The Lord looked somber. "I didn't put it there," He said.

Investing in our mental health has become more necessary and more discussed amongst athletes today than in the past. We are fortunate to have many athletes at all levels speaking up about mental health and the importance of it in sports and life.

Join Dr. Nina Rios-Doria as she hosts a mental health discussion that includes a panel of former professional athletes including former PGA player James Nitties, former Texas Ranger Craig Gentry, former Dallas Cowboy Tony Casillas, and former NFL player Louis Trinca-Pasat. They will be addressing overcoming injury, transitioning out of their sport, dealing with daily pressures, and more when playing sports and how it affected their mental health. There will be opportunities to ask questions at the end of this discussion. Parents and older teens are welcome to attend this event.

May is mental health awareness month. Let us continue to keep the dialogue open and discuss and invest in our mental health. Cost is $10 per person and registration is required.
